

CAMP FRIENDSHIP MAD LIBS

Once upon a time, in a camp far far away there lived a camper named _____ (your name). This camper was so excited for their first day of camp in
_____!
(village) Equipped with their _____, _____, and of course, (noun) (noun) their _____, they were set for the day and made their way to their (noun) first activity, which was _____. The counselor for this activity was (camp activity) _____ and they were very _____. After morning activities, all (person's name) (adjective) of the campers _____ to the dining hall for lunch where they ate a (action verb) tasty meal of _____ and had some _____ for dessert!
(camp meal) (camp meal) Afterwards, all of the campers _____ to the _____ for free (action verb) (place on camp) swim. The water was really _____ when they got in, but it felt so (adjective) _____. Just then, a giant _____ is spotted from the shore! All (adjective) (noun) of the campers hurry to get out of the water, but once they get there, they realize it was just another counselor, _____, playing a joke on them.
(person's name) Later that evening, it was revealed that the evening activity that night would be _____. What a treat! The campers were so _____ (evening activity) (emotion) to hear this that they could hardly contain themselves. After a few rounds of _____, it was time for bed. Their counselor, _____, told (evening activity) (person's name) them a bed time story about a _____ named (adjective) (noun) _____. Before they knew it, the campers were fast asleep and (name) dreaming about the fun they would have tomorrow. What a day!