

Virginia My Second Home

Well I flew in from out of town
With an accent like no one else around
You welcomed me with those open arms and I noticed
That no one seemed to frown
Well that's not like those folks back home
Who only ever seem to fuss and moan
So I asked my boss what's going down
He said "My boy, you're in Virginia now"

Virginia my second home
Virginia my second home
Camp Friendship is starting to feel
Like we belong

The Stars and Stripes they feel so right at dawn
In that fresh American light
And I swear one day I'll let you see just what
This country means to me
And if I keep on trying hard, who knows?
I might even get a green card
But if I don't and I'm headed home, I know
I'll never be alone

Virginia my second home
Virginia my second home
Camp Friendship is starting to feel
Like we belong
Like we belong
Like we belooooooooooooooooooooong
Like we belong
